This has been an amazing year of MOPS. Mom's stepped out in bravery to share their stories, encourage one another, face adversity, and live bravely through the everyday. There is even more coming in the 2015-2016 MOPS year! Join us for "A Fierce Flourishing" when we will celebrate lavishly, embrace rest, and notice goodness.

2015 Graduating Moms

As we wrap up on year of "Be You Bravely" we want to honor and celebrate those moms who are graduating MOPS.

Angie Allington is a mom of 4 girls: Paige (17), Karlee (9), Evelyn (7), Layla (5). Married to Greg for the past 11 years.

How do you enjoy spending your leisure time? With my family and friends

What is your favorite or funniest MOPS memory? Lots of fun times and memories with great ladies

What was your BRAVEST mommy moment? Letting go, whether it is when they are young and exploring or older and maturing.

What was your BRAVE this year? Letting go and trusting God's plan.

What one piece of advice would you give moms of young children? Don't sweat the small stuff, and it's all small stuff. Don't waste too much energy on choosing preschools and kindergarten. Your children will thrive with your calm confident demeanor. Enjoy them. Be confident in your decisions and move on.

Erin Branchflower is a mom of 4: Caden (11), Ridge (9), Nathan (5), Vanessa (5). Married to Chris for the past 13 years.

How do you enjoy your leisure time? Reading, shopping, crafts, being creative and enjoying the quiet.

What is your favorite or funniest MOPS memory? Hard one when you've been in MOPS so long...Funniest isn't fit for publication, I guess my favorite is the leadership retreats – getting to know some moms on a deeper level away from the everyday chaos.

What is your BRAVEST mommy moment? Testifying in court against one of my foster kiddos in order to save another.

What was your BRAVE this year? Deciding to move back to Colorado.

What one piece of advice would you give moms of young children? Take it all in then follow your gut, and don't be afraid to start conversations with the other moms.

Mandie Metier is a mom of 3: Madison (9), Everett (8) and Sophia (6). Married to Shawn for the past 21 years.

How do you enjoy your leisure time? Reading, crocheting, outdoor activities with the family, camping

What is your favorite or funniest MOPS memory? Loved every MOPS meeting and event I attended. Connecting with other moms has been a blessing.

What is your BRAVEST mommy moment? Quitting my job to be able to allow my youngest daughter the secure environment she needed for her sensory issues.

What was your BRAVE this year? Stop trying to figure it all out and let God handle details.

What one piece of advice would you give moms of young children? Enjoy the moment.

Cherie Prochaska is a mom of twin boys: Devin and Dane (6). Married to Darrell for the past 8 years.

How do you enjoy spending your leisure time? Spending time with friends and getting to know new people.

What is your favorite or funniest MOPS memory? My favorite memories have been getting to know all the wonderful ladies at my table in such a short amount of time.

What is your BRAVEST mommy moment? Sharing the miscarriage I went through in January.

What was your BRAVE this year? Honesty and transparency.

What one piece of advice would you give moms of young children? Oh goodness... Honestly, that's the last thing I think new moms need. More advice. Just love. Love God. Love yourself. Love your spouse. Love your kids. Love your Mother-in-law. Hehe. And breathe. God's got this. And his plan is more perfect than yours.
